

MORRIS FOR MAYOR

As all of you who attended the Centennial Theatre debate know, I have become the subject of an attack campaign.

While it is true that one candidate has led the attack, he has not acted alone. He has had support from the other candidate in this mayoral race.

In reply to the mud-slinging, I have now posted a video on my web site which answers all these allegations directly, as they have been levelled against me. I encourage all of you to have a look at that video.

It is my hope that we can now bring this campaign back to the issues which are most important to City residents. I believe our community wants answers to the very real problems which confront us, not just another example of childish political behaviour.
